Panasonic

Just add Smartsign

The Panasonic AF1 Series encompasses everything you need to get your Digital Signage application up and running: State-of-the-art LED screen, SoC, media player, Wi-Fi... it's all there. The AF1 Series - World class hardware, simplicity and quality in an easy to use package. Just add the Smartsign Manager and you're home free.

OpenPort Platform™

The AF1 Series is Google certified, giving professionals the power to customize and update content very easily while adapting to changing needs in the future. Combined with Panasonic's brilliant picture quality and proven reliability, the AF1 Series presents a cost-effective and self-contained solution for high-impact Digital Signage.

Star quality

We don't have to debate the Panasonic track record: we're talking about a stellar manufacturer of world class digital screens. The AF1 Series upholds the tradition featuring 42", 49", and 55" panels with slim 6.3 mm bezels. The amazing 500 cd/m² IPS panels assure excellent off-axis visibility, supporting tilt installation up to 45 degrees forward or backward.
